A MESSAGE FROM THE

DAVIS STORE, GLOVER, VT.

'Tis most time for Christmas and all through the town,
You all are beginning to write the things down
Which you surely must buy for the friends kind and dear
Who come to your mind as the season draws near;
First, there are the children, the dear little things!
You wouldn't have them miss the joys Christmas brings.
Now at Davis' Store, at Glover, now mind,
You will find lots of toys and they're just the right kind.
There are dolls, books and games and nice children's slippers,
Blocks, dishes and guns and sleds that are clippers.
And then for your lady friend of course you will buy,
A collar, an apron, handkerchief or a tie,
A dust cap, toilet set, or a nice pretty dish,
It surely would please her and that's what you wish.
The gentlemen always like something to use
And for them we have many things from which to choose,
Gloves, mittens and ties and a watch for a dollar
Socks, pins and buttons to use in his collar.
Now do come and see us, we have presents for all,
And we'll try and please you, if you only will call,
Now Christmas is splendid, and, if you have in your heart
The true Christmas spirit, and make it a part
Of your buying, and giving, and receiving each year,
You'll get from it plenty of love, hope, and cheer.
And now ere, I close, I surely must say
To one and to all, a bright Christmas day.

ROY E. DAVIS.

A Christmas Carol

By CHRISTINA G. ROSSETTI

Lo, newborn Jesus,
Soft and weak and small,
Wrapped in baby's bands
By his mother's hands,
Lord God of all!

Lord God of Mary,
Whom his lips caress
While he rocks to rest
On her milky breast
In helplessness.

Lord God of shepherds
Flocking through the cold,
Flocking through the dark
To the only ark,
The only fold.

Lord God of all things,
Be they near or far,
Be they high or low,
Lord of storm and snow,
Angel and star.

Lord God of all men,
My Lord and my God,
Thou who lovest me,
Keep me close to thee
By staff and rod.

Lo, newborn Jesus,
Loving great and small,
Love's free sacrifice,
Opening arms and eyes
To one and all!

MRS. C. D. KIDDER

Mrs. Emma Abbie Kidder was born in Irasburg, March 15, 1883 and died in the same town Dec. 8, 1915. She was the daughter of John and Maria Huntington. She spent her whole life in the town where she was born with the exception of one year spent with an aunt in Albany after her mother's death. On Aug. 20, 1879, she became the wife of Charles Dana Kidder and spent a happy married life of 36 years on the farm on Kidder Hill, where her husband was born. She was a very loyal and devoted wife, a worthy helpmeet, and always did her full share as long as health permitted, in bearing the burdens of the home life. She was a mother, who will always be gratefully and lovingly remembered by her children. She endeavored herself to a host of friends, in spite of the fact that her feeble health made it impossible for her to mingle much among them, especially of late. They who knew her best loved her most. She was one of the few people that have no enemies. Her health had never been good, though few ever knew this, so patient and uncomplaining was she, but during the last five years she suffered much. She bore her sufferings with a cheerfulness and hopefulness such as is seldom seen. She united with the M. E. church when a young woman, and always maintained an interest in its work. She died, as she had lived, trusting fully in her Saviour. The funeral services were held Sunday afternoon, Dec. 5, at 1 o'clock, the home and were attended by a large number of relatives and friends. Her pastor, Rev. G. L. Wells, officiated, taking as his text, 1st Tim. 1:3. The interment was in the Irasburg cemetery. Those who attended the funeral from out of town were Mr. and Mrs. Amasa Crawford, Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Frissell, Miss Mary and Bert Frissell, Mr. and Mrs. Alec Estell of Newport Center, Mr. and Mrs. George Wright and Eli Taylor of Troy, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Sheaf of Sheffield, C. O. Miles and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Miles of Glover, Fred Hancock of Newport, Mrs. A. J. Hancock of Coventry and Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Lemos of Barton. She leaves to mourn her loss her husband, a daughter, Mrs. F. H. Metcalf, and son, Bennie, besides a brother, Dana J. Huntington and three sisters, Mrs. Amasa Crawford, Mrs. J. D. Edmonds and Mrs. H. H. Frissell, of Newport Center. These have the sympathy of the entire community in their present bereavement, but we rejoice with them in their hope of the blessed reunion beyond.

Card of Thanks—We wish to express our heartfelt thanks to all the many neighbors and friends who so helped and cheered us by their many acts and words of kindness, for the help, when help was so much needed, for the cards and letters, for the flowers and the many expressions of sympathy for us in our great bereavement.

Charles D. Kidder, Bennie Kidder, Mrs. Elsie Metcalf and family.
